the Aber Valley in collaboration with Ysgol Ifor Bach.

Criwyd y marfwr hwn gan drigolion Ysgol Ifor Bach a'i darlwydd Ied Chris Morga mewn cydweithdardd 57 darparwr tai di-ewc Unibet, Wlad.

[illegible]

Nid mater o adeiladu cartrefi yn unig yw'r datblygiad newydd hwn, mae'n ymwneud thylu'r gymuned yn Abertidwr a'r holl ymdeiaid o gynfech i ffay o bobl.

This mural was created by Vogel for Bach students and local illustrator Chris Morgan, in collaboration with not-for-profit housing provider United Way.

United Welsh is creating a new community of 152 homes, developing houses and apartments available for social rent. Homes will be available to purchase, with shared ownership opportunities available.

This mural celebrates the Aber valley and the evolution of houses over time, with characters designed by Chris inspired by local historical figures and events. The tree represents the strength and growth of the community.

Each leaf on the tree was designed by a student, representing what 'cynfeir' means to them. 'Cynfeir' is a Welsh word that describes the feeling of being at home in a place, and the deep, spiritual connection we have to that area. It's about belonging.

This new development is not just about building homes, it's about growing the
